

1. Thomas Guthrie
2. James Guthrie
3. Isaac Guthrie
4. James W. Guthrie

1. Thomas Guthrie was a native of Virginia. He was a volunteer in the War of Independence. In 1782 he moved to Woodford County, Ky., where he died in 1837.

2. James Guthrie was born in Virginia in 1779. He moved with his parents to Woodford County, Ky. in 1782. He married Elizabeth Gibbs, a native of Virginia in 1802. Mrs. Guthrie was born in 1780 and died in 1859. They were the parents of eleven children. Mr. Guthrie was a farmer and hotel keeper.

3. Isaac U. Guthrie was born in 1810 - the fifth of eleven children. He married Mary Beauchamp of Spencer County, Ky. July 6, 1832. Of this marriage there were four sons: James W. (Grandpa), Isaac N., Nathan, Henry Clay, all of whom served in the Confederate Army. Mrs. Guthrie died September 15, 1844. On May 8, 1845, he married Martha A. Montgomery of Shelby County, Ky. They were the parents of eight children, one of whom was Frank, who compiled and published the Guthrie Family History. The second Mrs. Guthrie died July 10, 1877. On March 25, 1879, he married Mrs. Margaret E. Taylor of Logan County, Ky. Isaac Guthrie first located in Shelby County, Ky. where he was a merchant and farmer. In 1848 he moved to Sumner County, Tenn. and continued merchanting and farming at Gallatin until 1860. From then on he gave all his time to farming and breeding Shorthorn cattle, Southdown sheep, Berkshire hogs, and Percheron trotting horses and met with great success. He owned 583 acres of valuable land in Sumner County. He had a handsome brick home on the farm four miles from Gallatin. He was a Whig who voted for Henry Clay for President. He was a prominent Mason and also the Clerk and treasurer of the Baptist Church in Gallatin. He was one of the most influential citizens of the county and was active in all measures that would promote the interests of his town and county.

4. James W. Guthrie was born in Shelby County, Kentucky, January 25, 1836, the son of Isaac N. and Mary Beachamp Guthrie. When he was about eight years old, his mother died. The following year his father married Martha A. Montgomery. In 1848, when James was twelve years old, the Isaac Guthrie family moved from Kentucky to Gallatin in Sumner County, Tenn. Here James W. Guthrie grew up and lived until after the Civil War. He served in the Confederate Army. In 1858 or thereabout, he married Mary E. Johnson who, I've always understood, was from Virginia. I do not know how they met nor where they married but they lived in Gallatin. Mary Johnson was born March 21, 1841 and died October 25, 1901. Their first child, Sallie, was born November 16, 1859, hence the speculation they were married in 1858. I do not know in what year Grandpa and Grandma moved to Mississippi. Aunt Ellen Ruv and Mother were born in Gallatin (mother in 1865). I don't know about Aunt Jenny and Aunt Dora. Grandpa settled in Paulding, the county seat of Jasper County. My guess is that he located here because Grandma's sister, great Aunt Sallie, who was married to Capt. Will Hardy lived there. She is buried in the Paulding Cemetery. I do not know what Grandpa did in Paulding, nor when nor why he moved to Newton. At first he was engaged in the merchantile business in Newton - probably had served an apprenticeship in his father's store in Gallatin. He was at one time mayor of Newton, one time County Superintendent of Education of Newton County, one time Justice of Peace. This last office won for him the title of Judge. All his sons-in-law addressed him as "Judge". I don't known just when he went into the hotel business. Sometime in the 1870's, he was the proprietor of Guthrie House, a two story, eleven room frame building located on the hill across Main Street from the Newton Hospital. By 1893 Grandma's health was bad. She had Brights disease. All the daughters were married. So

Grandpa decided to retire. He rented the hotel to a Mrs. Busterment and moved into the house known as The Lee Sansing house, No. South Main. Within a year Mrs. Busterment was ready to give up the hotel. Grandpa came down to where we were living on the Coast in the house on the beach now known as Grasslawn and persuaded Father and Mother to move to Newton and buy the hotel. So from 1895 to 1906, when the house burned, Father and Mother ran the Guthrie House. Grandpa was crippled. At sometime he was helping build a bridge (in those days all adult men had to give so many days a year to work on the roads) and accidentally chopped off a kneecap with a pickax. He walked with a cane.

Soon after Father and Mother took over the Guthrie House, Grandpa and Grandma moved from S. Main to East Church Street to the house occupied at this meeting by Marks Jenkins. I do not know whether they owned or rented it. Uncle Jim was in Vanderbilt Medical School but their granddaughter, Bessie Mudd, was living with them. Bessie got married, Grandma became an invalid, so they broke up housekeeping and moved to Aunt Ellen Ruvs, where Grandma died in 1901.

As soon as Uncle Jim married and set up housekeeping, Grandpa went to live with him. When Uncle Jim was called into the Medical Corps during World War I, Grandpa moved back to Newton to live with first one and then another of his daughters until he died. He and Grandma are buried in the Cemetery down by the Baptist Church in Newton.
